Definitions

| Term                                   | Definition   |  |  |  |
|--|--|--|--|--|
| Agreement                              | See definition of Contract below.  |  |  |  |
| Automatic Purchase Order (APO)         | A method of ordering that offers units the option to release orders with a total cost below the bid limit directly to the vendors, when the order has met a predetermined set of criteria.   |  |  |  |
| Bid                                    | A request for competitive quotation or proposal from a qualified vendor for the purpose of issuing a purchase order and contract for the procurement of goods or services.   |  |  |  |
| Bid Specifications                     | A detailed description of the services, equipment and products describing what is to be accomplished and the level of detail needed for success.   |  |  |  |
| Blocked Vendor                         | A vendor whose merchant category code has been restricted from use with a university procurement card.   |  |  |  |
| Business Expense                       | An ordinary, necessary, and reasonable charge for goods or services, whether paid, committed, or accrued, that foster or supports the ongoing missions of the university. These charges may include expenses (expenditures), debt service payments, and capital outlays.   |  |  |  |
| Business Meal                          | A meal at which a substantive and bona fide business discussion, linked to the university's mission, takes place.   |  |  |  |
| Business Purpose                       | The way in which a particular good or service supports the university's mission of education, research and public service; this is an essential component of documentation, and should be in language that an external reviewer could easily understand.   |  |  |  |
| Business Service Center (BSC)          | Financial transaction processing centers approved by the Vice President for Financial Affairs. See University Policy 4.2, Transaction Authority and Payment Approval , for a list of these centers.   |  |  |  |
| Cardholder, BusinessService Center | An individual employed in an BSC who has been authorized to make a procurement card purchase at higher dollar limits than a regular cardholder.  |  |  |  |
| Cardholder, Regular                    | An individual who has been authorized by his or her unit to use a university procurement card.   |  |  |  |
| Catering                               | Catering occurs when a vendor prepares, sets up, serves or cleans up food on Cornell controlled property, including both facilities owned by Cornell and facilities that may be rented or leased and only under Cornell's control for the period of the event (i.e., rental of a banquet hall.) Catering should not be confused with simple delivery, where no service is provided on site (i.e., "pizza delivery".) |  |  |  |
| Competitive Bid                        | A process used to have more than one vendor provide a price for the same item. The primary purpose of competitive bidding is to insure and demonstrate that funding is being responsibly spent and equal opportunities are being extended.   |  |  |  |
| Concealed Damage                       | Carton intact, but material damaged.   |  |  |  |
| Conflict of Commitment                 | A situation in which an employee's additional employment, whether internal or external to the university, interferes with his or her performance in the primary appointment at the university.   |  |  |  |

|----------------------------------|---|--|
| Conflict of Interest             | A situation in which an individual or any of his or her family or associates either 1) has an existing or potential financial or other material interest that impairs or might appear to impair the individual's independence and objectivity of judgment in the discharge of responsibilities to the university, or 2) may receive a financial or other material benefit from knowledge of information confidential to the university. Refer to University Policy 4.14 , Conflicts of Interest and Commitment . |  |
| Contract                         | A contract is an agreement between two or more parties describing terms and conditions.   |  |
| Cornell Allowable Expense        | A valid and legal business expense for which the use of university funds will be permitted.   |  |
| Cornell UnallowableExpense   | An expense or item for which use of university funds will not be permitted.   |  |
| Cornell University Vendor        | A Cornell unit that sells goods or services.  |  |
| Default Account                  | The general ledger account associated with a procurement card that is charged automatically for transactions when a coordinator does not change the account distribution in KFS.  |  |
| Small BusinessAdministration | A federal program that encourages the engagement of entities that are federally recognized as being "small, disadvantaged business enterprises."  |  |
| Documentation                    | Original invoice, copy of cancelled check, original credit card receipt when applicable, and other documentation that describes and substantiates a business transaction.   |  |
| Emergency Situation              | The occurrence of an unanticipated and sudden situation that is life threatening, catastrophic in nature, or involves pressing necessity for immediate repairs, reconstruction, or maintenance in order to permit the safe continuation of a necessary use or function, or to protect the property or the life, health, or safety of any person.  |  |
| Employee                         | A person appointed through the Office of Human Resources and paid through payroll to perform services for the university. The university controls and directs the service provider's activities.  |  |
| e-Procurement                    | The use of electronic systems to purchase goods, works and services and to process payments from third parties. Cornell's e-procurement system is named e-SHOP.   |  |
| e-SHOP                           | Cornell's branded e-procurement system, which allows the units to procure goods and services from a wide variety of pre-selected suppliers through the KFS main menu Shop Catalogs  |  |
| FOB (Free on Board)              | The point of delivery where title of goods transfers from the vendor to Cornell University.   |  |
| Family Member                    | A spouse, sibling, parent, grandparent, ancestor, child, or grandchild, or any of their respective spouses.   |  |
| Financial Institution            | The bank issuing procurement cards to Cornell University.   |  |

|---------------------------------|--|--|
| Procurement Card (pcard)        | A credit card issued by a financial institution to Cornell University to make purchases directly from vendors. The individual named on the card is authorized to make certain business purchases on behalf of Cornell University, and the bill is paid directly by the university. |  |
| Procurement CardCoordinator | The individual within your BSC with knowledge of appropriate financial, purchasing, and accounting policies, who has specific responsibilities, as defined in this policy, and overall responsibility for the unit's pcard program.  |  |
| Prohibited Transaction          | Any good or service listed in the Procurement Card section of this manual (including Personal Expenses and Cornell Unallowable), and split transactions, that may not be paid for via pcard.   |  |
| Purchase Order (PO)             | A legally binding contract for purchase between the university and the vendor.   |  |
| Recurring Order                 | A purchase order for a defined period of time, frequently used for repetitive purchases, with a "not to exceed" dollar amount specified.   |  |
| RFI (Request for Information)   | A solicitation for information about a service or product; used when a clearly defined scope of work or specification is not available.  |  |
| RFP (Request forProposal)   | A solicitation used to acquire goods and/or services when a clearly defined scope of work or specification is available.   |  |
| RFQ (Request for Quotation)     | A solicitation for a price for a specific item or service.   |  |
| Receipt                         | A written acknowledgment that something has been received, which, generally, details the date of purchase, vendor name and address, description of goods and services, quantity, unit price, and total of expenditures.  |  |
| Revocation of Card              | The cancellation of a procurement card.  |  |
| Risk Management and Insurance   | A department responsible for procuring all institutional insurance, processing claims where applicable, establishing appropriate levels of insurance for suppliers (especially those working on campus).   |  |
| Scope of work                   | A detailed description of the product or service being requested.  |  |
| Service Provider                | An individual or entity engaged to perform a service.  |  |
| Service Recipient               | The unit of Cornell University receiving services.   |  |
| Service                         | An activity in which labor is the major factor and not merely incidental to the production, acquisition, and/or delivery of a good. Examples of services include hay delivery, catering, equipment repair, and web site design.  |  |
| Single Source/Sole Source       | Where competition may not be feasible due to the single source/sole source nature of a commodity or a particular specification.  |  |
| Spend                           | An act of using funds to purchase goods or services, or the funds spent by a unit through its procurement processes.   |  |
| Split Transaction               | Multiple payments for a single item (whether a good or service) to evade the maximum pcard per-transaction limit or bidding threshold requirements.  |  |
| Sponsored Project               | A signed award (grant, contract, or cooperative agreement) under which the university agrees to perform a certain scope of work for an external sponsor.   |  |

Number: 903 Issued: June 10, 2009 Revised: September 15, 2023

| Term                                      | Definition  |  |
|---|---|--|
| Sponsored ProjectConsulting Agreement | A written agreement between the university and an independent contractor to provide highly specialized professional services directly related to the science and or scope of the sponsored project. A Sponsored Project Consulting Agreement is usually for a relatively short duration (less than one year). |  |
| Subcontract                               | A written agreement between Cornell University and a third party, often issued under a sponsored project, to procure "substantive programmatic effort." A subcontract generally involves services over a relatively long period (one year or more).   |  |
| Subcontractor                             | An individual, business, or other third party engaged, often under a sponsored project agreement, to provide services that contribute "substantive programmatic effort" to the project.   |  |
| Sufficient DocumentaryEvidence        | Information and documentation that, when taken as a whole, substantiates an expense and its business purpose. Sufficient documentation should include who, what, when, where, why, and how much.  |  |
| Supervisor                                | The individual with primary responsibility for the regular and customary supervision of individual positions. Generally, the supervisory duties include hiring, salary, discipline, performance evaluation, and work assignment decisions.  |  |
| Supplier                                  | See definition of Vendor below.   |  |
| Suspension of Card                        | Removal of the procurement card holder's privilege to use the pcard for a specific period of time.  |  |
| Terms and Conditions                      | Stand-alone clauses that define the understanding between Cornell University and the vendor.  |  |
| Transaction                               | Any event that involves an exchange of funds between two parties. Examples are paying a bill to a vendor, collecting a fee from a student, and making an interdepartmental charge. Also, a single debit or credit to a procurement card.  |  |
| Transaction Authority                     | The authority to administer, approve, and execute transactions or agreements with external parties that commit the university.
